

Newsletter Jan - Mar 2018

2018 has been a very busy year so far for the firm. We have had new staff members join, we now have a secondary office location on the Gold Coast, and the firm is going from strength to strength.

The firm has a new and updated website with staff bios, news stories, and targeted information downloads specific to our practice areas: Patent, Trade Mark and Registered Designs.

We also offer a free 30 min initial consultation with one of our Attorneys for Patent, Trade Mark and Registered Designs.

The firm welcomes Clinton Priddle to the IP Gateway team. Read all about our newest member and what skills he brings to the firm and its client base. Click here.

IP Gateway is stretching its legs with the opening of a new office in the Gold Coast region. Find out what it means for the firm and for our current and potential clients. Click here.

Online marketplaces, such as Amazon and eBay, are not only changing the way we buy, but are also changing the way we sell. Click here for the full article.

When people think of Tasmania it's always the apple, well how about an unlikely product being grown in the most unlikely of places. Click here to read about this unusual crop.
